Charles Vincent Richter and Billy Holloway arrived home Saturday from Texas A. and M. College to spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Richter and Mr. A. C. Holloway.

Here's a hunting story, every word true, that will be hard to stop. While on their hunting trip out Hondo way, Francis and Virgil Koop and Gilford Roberson saw a big buck all tangled up in a wire fence. They got out of their car for the purpose of catching the deer, but he looked so robust and dangerous that they hesitated. While standing around looking him over and watching his efforts to extricate himself, the buck's horns and the fence separated. There he stood footloose surrounded by the three men. The deer didn't wait long to plan his escape. He made a direct lunge at Gilford, hitting him so hard he was bowled over. But in going down Gilford put a half-nelson on the deer and Francis and Virgil went to his rescue. For a few seconds it was a free for all. However, the boys got the fall and the buck was soon securely bound and loaded on their pick-up and the boys headed for camp where they took their time in dispatching the buck.—Edna Herald.

Mrs. Lue W. McKinney arrived Saturday from Marathon to spend two weeks of the holidays with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Ulbrich. Mrs. McKinney was Miss Fern Ulbrich before her marriage on December 5th. Miss Betty Jean Merriman arrived home Friday from Austin where she is a student at the University. Friday she and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Merriman, moved back into their home which has been rebuilt. The house was partially destroyed by fire last October when a plane crashed in their backyard.

HELP THE TELEPHONE GIRLS

Delays of as much as several hours are expected on many long distance calls this Christmas as the greatest volume in history swamps telephone lines and switchboards. T. W. Johnson, camp telephone manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, has announced.

The greatest flood of calls will come after 7 p. m. on Christmas Eve and all day Christmas Day, Johnson said. To avoid this rush period, men of the armed forces who are planning to make Christmas calls are urged to do so before Christmas Eve or after Christmas Day.

Everything possible will be done to handle the calls, Johnson promised. Extra operators will be pressed into service to supplement regular forces. Every available piece of telephone equipment will be in operation. Telephone circuits will be arranged to permit handling a maximum number of calls.

"We would like nothing better than to be able to handle all of the Christmas calls of men of the armed forces speedily and without delays," Johnson added. "Yet we know that many soldiers and sailors will have to wait hours for their calls to go through. We regret the unavoidable delays, but you may be sure the telephone people throughout the nation will be doing everything within their power to furnish you the best service possible under the circumstances."

QUIHI NOTES

For unto us a child is born; unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Is. 9:6.

Christmas Greetings from the Old Testament! Isaiah, the prophet herald, speaks centuries before the child is born. He coins a text that flesh and blood have not revealed unto him, but the Father in heaven spoke through him for you and me. His time breathed no Christmas spirit, as little as ours. His time needed such a "child" as much as ours.

The "government" seems to be resting on other shoulders, aching and quaking, near the breaking point. Nothing seems to be "wonderful," any longer, but stern, sober reality, underlined with blood and tears. "Counselors" aplenty, yet confusion seems to frustrate the counsel. The "Mighty God" seems to have abdicated the throne and "the everlasting Father" is on a lengthy furlough.

The "Prince of Peace" has grown tired of his job and resigned with tired in a world that's all out for chaos and destruction. Christmas cheer and happiness is a thing of the past; a memory, a beautiful legend. So the pessimists. And their number runs into the millions.

But they are gravely wrong. Christmas can never die. That splendor from Bethlehem will shine with increasing brilliancy through eternity. That "child" is here to stay. That "Son" of God will never be substituted. His "government" is still in full function, inaugurating new forces and energies and life in ever widening and deepening circles, though silently as a powerful undercurrent in the affairs of the human race.

"Wonderful" as ever is He, in his universal connection with every human heart that hungers and thirsts for His saving solace and light, and "Counselor" supreme is He, knowing the eternal counsels of His Father for the temporal and eternal welfare of man, and gently leading along His thoughts and His ways, sometimes crossing our own, but always better than ours. He is "The Mighty God" incarnate, revealed as such by signs and wonders, by an exemplary life, perfect in holiness and righteousness, faithful unto death that we might live; resurrected from the dead that death and grave might be but a vestibule to a higher and nobler life for us. Wars and words by unbelievers will not change that truth, as little as the wars of weapons and waste.

The "everlasting Father," mysterious and mystifying as His whole personality and being, "Wonderful" in every detail. So it must be. Higher and different than an ordinary mortal man that can be understood and dissected bodily and mentally for inspection, although with a great portion of his make-up left that still eludes closer scrutiny. Jointly with the Father, we take this term, He loves, and provides for, His children as no earthly father can do, and, with Him, longingly and patiently waits for the prodigal to return home.

And He is still the "Prince of Peace" and emphatically so. Wars never end wars. Will never give lasting economic or political peace. Power-politics and nationalistic pride will see to that. In His own good time, however, He will command His "Halt!" for at least a temporary armistice. And the cannon cease roaring, the bombers unload their cargoes of death, the ships are homeward bound, one by one the lights are shining again. He has a hundred ways to bring it about where you and I see none. Yet the peace of heart, of a troubled conscience, is His main object. "Justified by faith, we have peace with God." Not the whole world with its money and power can give it. Only He. Such "peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you—let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

Those are Christmas sentiments. True Christmas joy is based on Him, and He lives, yesterday, today and forever. May you find it in Him abundantly, enough to last for a Happy New Year, and beyond.

And our Christmas greetings are, indeed, meant for your readers and the ever busy management and crew

I NEED HIM NEAR

Blue waves stop frolics to sigh.
As gulls scar high, I'm hearing Heart hunger in their eager cry.

Winds, tell my love I need him near To give me cheer, I'm longing For this dull ache to disappear.

With him life is a dream song Which knows no fear or sighing.
His arms are tenderful and strong—
I feel these teardrops drying.

LOST

Almost two thousand years ago there came A sudden glare as shepherds watched their flocks.
The heavens were aglow with silvered flame
That seemed to flash from out a star-shaped box.
Three wise men saw and followed it with chests
Of precious gold and frankincense and myrrh.
Above old Bethlehem the Light car-ressed
The cave, where beast and Joseph sheltered her,
The Mother, of the blessed Son of God
Whose birth proclaimed new tenets
for mankind,
Of peace and good-will; but today
a cloud Has blasted Love and Lights and made men blind.
We hope that ere another Yule rolls round
That hidden gifts of God will make men sound.

HOW MERRY Christmas WILL BE!

THE THOUGHTS of many of us are far away as Christmas nears this year. The mails have long been crowded with Christmas packages marked for the boys on the fighting fronts and in the training camps of our mighty armed forces.

And while we observe this Christmas, we dream of another Christmas ahead—perhaps even the next one or the one after that—when war is ended and victory is ours. Then the boys will have come back and we can all have a good old American Christmas season again.

How merry Christmas will be then!

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Looks like a pretty expensive cigar you've got there, Judge."

"Yesiree, it's a real good one, Bill. Won it from Chris down at the cigar store yesterday. He got pretty positive in a discussion we had and I had to take him up on it. Bet me three good cigars to my one that the three states that still have prohibition have less crime than the other states. Well, all I had to do was step across the street to my office where I had some recent F. B. I. figures in my desk drawer. Why, on the average, those three states have a worse crime record than the whole rest of the country. And there's a good sound reason for it, Bill. There's no such thing as a dry community. It's only a question of whether liquor is sold legally or illegally. And when it's sold illegally it means bootleggers, gangsters and more crime."

HEYEN-TAYLOR NUPTIALS HELD SUNDAY

In a pretty wedding at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, December 20, in the First Baptist Church of Hondo, Miss Verniece Louise Taylor, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis Taylor, became the bride of Mr. Merlin Louis Heyen, of Midland, Texas. The bridegroom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Heyen of Hondo.

The church was adorned with red poinsettias in keeping with the holiday season. Mrs. R. W. Gaines of San Antonio sang "I Love You Truly", accompanied at the piano by Miss Adell Scott. The traditional wedding march was played as a processional and "The Old Refrain" as the recessional, by Miss Scott.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and her only attendant was her sister, Miss Dolores Taylor. Mr. Ray J. Ahr of San Antonio the bridegroom's brother-in-law, assisted as best man.

The bride wore a dusty rose wool suit, a small hat of pink feathers with a touch of antique red, and black and dusty rose accessories. Her corsage was pink sweetheart roses.
Miss Taylor wore a heaven blue crepe frock, a beige hat, and beige accessories.

Following the ceremony, a turkey supper was served at the Bob Cat Grill for the wedding party and the immediate families of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Heyen were hosts. The bride cut the first slice of the wedding cake, which was a large white confection embossed with white morning glories.

Mr. and Mrs. Heyen went to San Antonio on a brief honeymoon and will leave Saturday for Odessa, Texas, where they will be at home at 402 North Adams Street. The bridegroom is a Private first class

The old saying, "Like father like 20, when Dr. O. B. Taylor and his 14-year-old son, Blanton, went out hunting together. Both returned with trophies of the hunt, Dr. Taylor killing a 5-point buck and Blanton going home better with a big 11-

CHRISTMAS TO ALL!

Yule Briefs

Christmas town—Bethlehem, Pa., was founded on Christmas eve, 1741.

Puritans had many odd ideas about Christmas. Many attempts were made to abolish it, and Thanksgiving was sponsored as a substitute.

The Poles call Christmas "Boze Narodzenie," meaning "God's Nativity."

In Australia, Christmas is celebrated with picnics and trips in the open.

Shoes replace stockings at the fireplace in France, Spain, and Holland at Christmas.

The singing of carols at Christmas is believed to have originated in Britain by wandering musicians.

Doughboy Greetings

Uncle Sam's married men in the army, whether in Ireland, England, Australia or other lands, are going to be remembered during the holidays through cards such as this one.

War or No War, Youngsters Keep Faith in St. Nick

Throughout this nation, letters from kiddies are beginning to pour into the post offices. They eventually turn up at the postmasters' desks, for they are addressed:

Santa Claus
North Pole

In New York city, San Francisco, New Orleans, Chicago and hundreds of other cities such addressed letters turn up—all testifying that, war or no war, the simple and faithful children have put their trust in Santa Claus.

Such letters as the one following are the kind that postmasters, calling upon local charities, and individuals, try to have answered on Christmas morning:

"Dear Santa Claus—I am writing to you because I am scared that you will miss me like you did last year. I have five sisters and four brothers, and they would like something for Christmas too. Mama hasn't got enough money to buy us anything and daddy has light, grocery and other bills to pay.

"Santa, we all hope and pray that you can get to our house. We live on the second floor.

"Mary G—"

Why Not Give a 'Roving Party'?

"Roving Parties" are loads of fun! And they cut down the work for our hostesses. They can easily be arranged where several close friends live on the same street, or close by.

Hostess No. 1 serves the first course—an appetizer or soup. The main course is served at the next home. A third hostess serves the salad, and a fourth comes afterward with dessert. This is the last stage of the "roving party," and at this home the jovial crowd spends the evening.

The "roving party" can, of course, be divided between two or three hostesses, if this plan is more suitable.

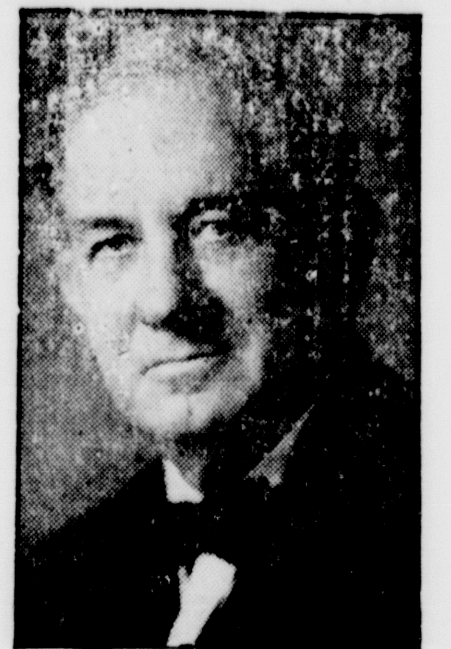

Even the White House puts on an extra decoration for the Yule holidays. The tree here is just outside the main entrance of the President's home.

nally. Most of their time in Texas will be spent at Marlin by the Senator and Mrs. Connally, who will be in the state until shortly before the convening of the Seventy-Eighth Congress. Before returning to Washington they will visit the Senator's only son, First Lieut. Ben Connally, United States Air Corps, now stationed at Hondo.—Dallas News.

COFFEE SIPPER, TAKE NOTICE

By Velma Hambleton, Home Demonstration Agent.

In these coffee rationing days we need to know every little hint possible to make that coffee flavor stretch farther. Most homemakers get from 25 to 30 cups of coffee per pound but by careful "brewing" and measuring coffee experts say 40 cups can be gotten.

First keep coffee in a cool place. It will keep best tightly closed in a jar or can and stored in refrigerator. When you measure, use level measurements—a level tablespoon or a cup of coffee. That idea of "one for the pot" is out of date during rationing days.

Make the exact amount you intend to serve, and serve the coffee as soon as it's made. It loses flavor if it stands and "over cooks."

Keep your coffee pot clean. Every time you use it, scrub it with soap and hot water and rinse thoroughly. Lard oil from old coffee can spoil your brew.

Arguments that coffee taken black is "better for you" than coffee with cream has no basis in fact, for coffee is not food. It can neither build and repair the tissues of the body nor provide energy for the body to run on.

The cream in coffee is a food, and the sugar, but not the coffee itself. Rationing will cause many to change their food habits, so we just as well change them for the better.

Many people may want to try their coffee the French way—half hot coffee and half hot milk. This is a good way for making coffee go farther and for getting more milk in diet. Miss Hazel Phipps, Food Preparation Specialist of A. & M. College, recommends a blend of coffee and chocolate flavor, so for a change she suggests a cup of hot chocolate or cocoa with a dash of coffee.

For that hot drink that coffee fills so aptly at lunch or dinner try a cup of steaming meat or vegetable broth. With desserts, try a hot spiced fruit juice. Hot grape juice spiced with cloves or stick cinnamon or hot spiced cider go well with many sugar saving desserts.

LETTERS FROM OUR BOYS IN THE SERVICE

Nov. 17, 1942

Dear Parents:

I can now tell you where I am at now and you probably will be surprised. I am at Guadalcanal in the Solomon Islands. The day we arrived we had a bombing raid by big bombers and dive bombers. I am still healthy and feeling fine. We have plenty of chow.

When we left the States we stopped in the Samoa Islands for several days before continuing our voyage to Noumea in the New Caledonia Islands. We stayed there about a month before coming to Guadalcanal. This is about all I can say about myself. I hope you are still well and happy. I think often of you people at home and be sure to tell all my friends hello. I will write again soon. Be sure and answer my letters immediately.

Love,

SGT. JOE W. BRITSCH, U. S. Marine Corps Unit No. 735, Care Postmaster, San Francisco, California.

P. S. The envelope this letter is in is Japanese.

Joe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie H. Britsch of Hondo. The letter was received by his parents on December 16th, one month after it was written, and was the first news they had of their son after they had word several months ago that he was going "somewhere overseas."

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

I see where a woman was in a grocery store, and the store was out of coffee. It peeved her. She picked up an onion and heaved it at the clerk. And instead of a wild pitch and bearing an innocent bystander, she popped the clerk in the eye.

"Well," says Henry, "if you can give me some idea what you are getting at I will be much obliged." "Alright," I says, "it is about what this country needs. This country needs more woodsheds. This onion heaver gave a good demonstration of what you amount to when brought up under a free rein—where you can express yourself—unbridled."

Too few woodsheds come from too many schools harboring teachers saying "let the young mind follow its bent and expand itself in its favorite direction." Sounds great. But getting popped in the eye with a Bernuda by a grown up graduate is hardly so grand and wonderful.

"How are you gonna fix it?" says Henry. "You can't," I says, "until we ration Psychologists like we do coffee—or even more so."

Yours with the low down, JO SERRA.

THE SEASONS

What is this a coming?
It seems like children running
Coming out of school.
Oh, it's nothing but the seasons,
They seem most out of reason,
It's the heat chased by the cool.

It's Autumn, winter, spring then summer;
They march as tho led by a drummer
Who beats the time away.
What makes them seem in such a hurry.
When everybody seems to worry
Because the time just will not stay?

The Dear Old Year just seems to spin,
As Summer goes and Fall comes in;
It seems 'twould make her dizzy.
They seem to be one in each corner,
Like playing Pussy wants a corner,
And time speeds on we are so busy.

The season comes, 'tis gone, alas,
The time, it seems to fly so fast,
They say I'm growing old.
I ask of friends in days of yore
They tell me they have gone before,
And the Old world seems so cold.

But why should I be with gloom o'ercast
Because the time is flying past,
When loved ones are above.
I'll just look up into Hos face,
And sing of His redeeming grace And everlasting love.

Then let the season's come and go,
My heart be light, or crushed with woe,
Dear Lord, I'll trust in Thee.
And when my life's work here is done
My crown of life in Heaven be won,
To Thee the praise shall be.

R. FLAYL DAVIS.

IN REMBRANCE OF OUR BELOV. ED LITTLE CHARLES CAL- VIN CLEMONS

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in the home
That never can be filled.

Dear Charles, you have left us, Lonely are our hearts today.
Death has taken you from us,
Taken you so far away.

Oh, Charles, how we miss you,
How our hearts do beat with pain,
That we through this earthly journey Ne'er with you shall meet again.

How we miss your little footsteps
Miss each kind and loving word;
No more in the lovely household Will your tender voice be heard.

Little Charles, how we loved you,
No pen can write, no tongue can tell,
But the gentle Shepherd called you And we must say farewell.

But we thank our Lord and Savior,
For the hope which he has given That when our work is ended
We with you shall meet in heaven.

So we will ask our gentle Savior
To help us say God's will be done, To watch and pray that we'll be ready
As He'll call us one by one.

By his cousin,
M. W.

A SHEPHERD SPEAKS

The Star's dim rays that still cold night
Shone with a soft ethereal light
Upon the kneeling forms in prayer Who praised the Christ-Child lying there.

Within the stall in crib of stone While angels sang in glorious tone:
"God's peace to those in whom good will Does prove His love is reigning still."

And Virgin Mary's tender smile Beamed courage on me all the while I pressed the trembling lamb to me—
The firstling ram that was to be.
My humble gift for the blessed Child While He smilingly slept, so meek and mild.

And now long years have passed—
The Lamb
Of God was slain. That Babe, the great I Am,
Who came to earth that men might cease
Their bitter hates and love God's peace Pleads now for me my all to give To show the world He STILL does live.

FRANCES E. GARZA.

MRS. HATTIE CRAIN DEAD

Mrs. Will Crain, 66, of Yancey, died Saturday, December 19, 1942, at 9:15 A. M. in the local hospital following an illness of about three weeks. She suffered several heart attacks before the end came.

A brief prayer service was conducted at the Harger funeral home at 3 P. M. Sunday, followed by funeral rites in the Yancey Methodist Church with the pastor, Rev. W.
L. Hornung officiating. Interment was made in the Yancey cemetery, with the following acting as pallbearers: DeSha McAnelly, Gladden McAnelly, Buford Wilson, George Helligman, Philip Nixon, and Walter McClagherty.

The deceased was born Hattie Bailey, daughter of Wilson and Emma Bailey, in April 1876, at their home below Yancey. When she was about twelve years old the family moved to Hondo and made their home here for a number of years.
In early girlhood she joined the Methodist Church and was a faithful and active member until her death. Eight children were born of her union with Will Crain, who preceded her in death several years ago.
The children, all of whom survive their mother, are: Mrs. Willie Lee Wetz of San Antonio; Mrs. Georgia Conley of the Rio Grande Valley; Alton Crain of San Antonio; Mrs.
Betty Fader, who made her home with her mother; Clarence Crain of Pearsall; Philo Crain of Batesville; Mrs. Emma Gilliland of Dallas, and Bailey Crain of Yancey. Also left to mourn her passing are several grandchildren; one brother, Mr. Raymond Bailey of Hondo; and two sisters, Mrs. Jessie Walker and Mrs.
Georgia Horton of San Antonio.

mas service.

The Pastor wishes his congregation and his many Medina County friends a blessed Christmas season and a happy and prosperous New Year.

The church is a world family made up of Christian homes. Your home owes everything under God to the church; and, thus, as we worship, we increase our love and loyalty. Therefore, let us thank God for His Holy Church, for the Holy Communion, and all the other means of grace.

"We love the place, O God, Wherein Thine honour dwells,
The joy of Thine abode
All other joy excels."

"There was no room for Christ in the inn; have you room for Him in your heart?"

That is a serious question to which you must find an answer sooner or later. Let's give proof of it that Christ is in our heart in the year 1943. Let us continue to do faithful Christian mission work in our community. We invite you to come and worship with us.

The church with a welcome.

Coast Training Center, Dec. 13.— One of the largest classes ever to reof these already seasoned flyers will soon be carrying America's smashing vengeance to the Axis.

New pilots from Medina County include Lieut. Joe E. Roberts, Sta-Route, Hondo, and Lieut. Vinson Huegele, Rio Medina.

Lieut. Roberts is graduating from Lubbock Flying School, one of the four bomber schools in Texas. Two motor pilots are trained to fly bombards to enemy production centers and supply lines.

To make more industrial facilities available for war production, WPB plans to cut down civilian industry to a minimum through conservation of materials and manpower.

Officials of WPB recommend that virtually every civilian industry in the United States give serious consideration to the problems involved in concentration and work on plans which they may discuss with War Production Board authorities.

The proposed concentration of industry will result in (1) creation of geographical sales zones for those manufacturers permitted to continue civilian production; (2) standardization and simplification of all civilian products that will continue to be manufactured; (3) production of "Victory" models and "Comparison" models of those products that are "concentrated;" (4) elimination or curtailment of cross-hauling and other transportation facilities; (5) discontinuance of many brand names, labels, and trade marks for the duration. Plans are being worked out, however, to permit manufacturers to keep trade names alive through advertising.

The Smaller War Plants Division (SWPD), which is responsible for getting business for the smaller war plants and assisting them with engineering aid, is primarily a financial institution. The Division has six operating branches: (1) the Agencies Contact Branch; (2) the Agencies Branch; (3) the Plant Service Branch; (4) the Field Control Branch; (5) the Coordination Branch, and (6) the Interview Branch.

Congress is preparing to give industry a Christmas present. Before the holiday season begins, legislation to eliminate, curtail, or coordinate the hundreds of questionnaires, reports, and forms which various Federal agencies require manufacturers to fill out and submit has been passed by the Senate and favorable action is expected in the House before the end of the week. Members of the Congress who sponsored the bill declare it should save manufacturers millions of dollars a year in the "paper work" they have had to do for the Government. Both the National Association of Manufacturers and the state groups of the National Industrial Council have strongly supported the measure in its amended form.

Organized labor is obtaining additional representation at WPB through the appointment of labor union leaders as assistant directors of a number of key industry divisions. These appointments are being made in accordance with the demands of President Green of AFL and President Murray of CIO, that labor be given more recognition and a greater voice in WPB operation.
The OPA has promulgated rules under which employers may seek price adjustments based on wage or salary increases requiring WLB approval. In a statement for employers seeking price adjustments, OPA emphasized that, in line with the present adjustment policy, price increases will be granted only when they are essential to prosecution of the war or "to a standard of living consistent with prosecution of the war."

THE WAR

A summary of the past week's war events reviewed by The National Editorial Association Defense Advisory Committee in cooperation with the Office of Government Reports.

DECEMBER 14, 1942

An estimated 660,000 essential war workers in the Detroit area have been held at their jobs by an agreement announced by Montague A.
Clark, Michigan director of the War Manpower Commission. The agreement—intended to prevent labor piling and dislocations caused by shifting of workers to higher-paying jobs—lists 34 categories in which employees may not leave their jobs without specific governmental authorization. President Roosevelt's executive order setting up the new War Manpower Commission under the chairmanship of Paul V. McNutt had provided that, when the effective prosecution of war required it, all war workers be hired, rehired and recruited through the U. S. Employment Service, and prohibited employers from retaining workers more urgently needed in a more essential occupation. Mr. McNutt said the new program embraces the allocation of manpower to the armed forces, war industries, agriculture and other essential civilian activities, the efficient use of labor for war industries, the mobilization of the country's labor reserves, the transfer of workers from less essential activities to more essential activities, and the providing of labor needed for essential agriculture. He announced the establishment of a Bureau of Selective Service—to include the selective service system and to be headed by Selective Service Director Hershey—within the WMC, and said that by the end of 1943 one out of every five men in the civilian labor force, instead of one out of every nine, as now, would be in the armed services.

The WMC and the Selective Service System are helping the country's war plants draw up manning tables forms to enable the employer to plan for his future labor needs and give the government information upon which to base the orderly withdrawal of workers who must be released to the armed services. Secretary of Labor Perkins reported 3,200,000 women employed as factory wage earners in mid-October, as compared with 8,700,000 in October 1941, and said that in the same period total factory wage workers increased from 11,400,000 to 12,000,000. Under Secretary of War Patterson said the average work week should be raised in all wage and non-war industries from the present average of 42.8 hours to an overall average of 48 hours.

Agriculture.
An executive order of December 7 gave full control over the nation's food program to Secretary of Agriculture Wickard. Mr. Wickard is to control all phases of the food program—requirements, production, distribution, priorities and allocations, purchase and procurement. To permit effective use of these controls, the order provided for the procurement from WPB of farm machinery, supplies and equipment necessary to carry out the program, the power to order civilian rationing of foods through OPA, the determination of policies and procedures for the feeding of people in foreign countries, the issuance of directives relating to the importation of food, and the issuance of priority schedules for domestic transportation of food.

The functions, personnel, and property of certain agricultural bureaus and divisions concerned primarily with the production of food will be consolidated into a Food Production Administration, with Herbert W. Parisius, Associate Director of the Office of Agricultural War Relations, as director, and the functions, personnel, and property of certain agricultural bureaus concerned primarily with the distribution of food will be consolidated into a Food Distribution Administration, with Roy Hendrickson, present AMA administrator, as director.

Secretary Wickard said prospects are good for meeting 1943 food requirements, but in order to meet those requirements the U. S. must use fully and economically its production facilities and distribution system and exert economy in the consumption of foods. Some foods may be scarce, he said, but "no one will need to go hungry." The executive order will enable the Agriculture Department to set up a national "assembly line" in the production and distribution of food vitally needed to win the war and the peace.

Lend-lease deliveries of American foodstuffs for shipment to other United Nations, as reported by the Department, increased 93,000,000 pounds during October, bringing the month's deliveries to 645,000,000 pounds and the total since the program was started to nearly 8,000,- 000,000 pounds. The AMA delivery report showed increased deliveries of eggs, dairy products, meats, grains, and other products.

The War Front
President Roosevelt told Congress that American forces overseas will number more than 1,000,000 by the end of this month, and said "the Axis powers have, temporarily at least, lost the initiative." The OWI reported that from December 7, 1941, to December 7, 1942, the U. S. armed forces suffered 58,307 casualties—37,678 in the Army and 22,629 in the Navy. Maj. Gen. A. A. Vandergrift, Marine Commander, stated that in the 4-months campaign on Gaudalcanal 7,000 Japanese troops have been killed and 450 Japanese planes destroyed, with enemy losses exceeding U. S. losses by 10 to 1.

During the first year of war (December 7 to December 7), U. S. commu-niqués have announced the sinking in the Pacific and Far East of 306 Japanese ships and 85 U. S. ships.

The Navy announced the 22,000-ton U. S. President Coolidge, transporting approximately 4,000 Army troops, struck a mine in the South Pacific and sank with a loss of only four men, and also reported the loss through enemy action of the USS Al-chiba, an auxiliary cargo ship.

Gen. MacArthur's headquarters announced the complete occupation of the Gona area in New Guinea, with allied forces advancing against the remaining Japanese forces in the Buna-Sanananda area. According to communiqués, at least 95 Japanese have been killed and 4 captured in attempts to escape from their surrounded positions. On December 6 and 7 U. S. planes destroyed 21 Japanese aircraft, 18 of them in the Buna-Gona area.

Lt. Gen. Henry H. Arnold, commanding general of the Army Air Forces, said that in the air struggle over Tunisia American planes and personnel are for the first time in this war going up against first-class air power, engaging the best planes the Germans possess. If the U. S. can continue to destroy the enemy plane for plane, we will come out ahead, he stated, as U. S. production is at least twice that of the Axis.

Production
WPB Chairman Nelson described October arms output as "disappointing" as it was up only 3 per cent over September, the smallest moth-ly increase this year. He gave the October box score for major categories of war production, airplanes were down 5 per cent, mainly due to special factors affecting deliveries merchant vessels were down 10 per cent but still ahead of schedule, ordnance was up 3 per cent, Army and Navy vessels were up 4 per cent, other munitions were up 9 per cent, and machine tools were up 8.3 per cent—a new high for machine tool
production.

Because of the conflicting essen-tiality of many phases of the war production program, said President Roosevelt, the final decision as to what is most needed remains with the Army and Navy.

In the three months ended December 11, Lend-Lease assistance to the nations allies totaled $2,367,000,- 000, the President told Congress.
This represents an increase of more than one-third over the previous quarter and more than four times the Lend-Lease total for the quarter immediately preceding Pearl Harbor.

Civilian Supply
Civilian goods will diminish steady-ly in 1943, and every effort must be made to insure continued production of civilian supplies through the concentration of output in a few plants, said Joseph L. Weiner, new Director of the Office of Civilian Supply.

The file number of said suit being
No. 3799.

The names of the parties in said suit are: Frank Carrasco as Plaintiff, and Josephine Rogers Carrasco as Defendant.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to wit:

Suit for a divorce on the grounds of cruel treatment towards plaintiff by the defendant. Plaintiff alleges that on or about October 2nd, 1938, he was lawfully married to defendant, then a single woman; that they continued to live together as man and wife until on or about April 1st, 1940, when defendant left the plaintiff and they have never lived together since as man and wife. That defendant about two months after their said marriage and until their said separation began a course of unkind, harsh, cruel and tyrannical treatment towards plaintiff; That defendant often cursed plaintiff, and publicly accused him of living in adultery with a woman other than his wife; that there were no children born of their said marriage; and that they own no community property or other property. Prays for judgment dissolving said marriage relations, for costs of suit; and that defendant be returned her maiden name Josephine Rogers; all of which appears more fully in plaintiff's original petition on file.

Issued this the 2nd day of December, 1942.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Hondo, Tex-

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jungman and son, Robert, from Corpus Christi, and Mrs. Alex Jungman and son, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Embrey from San Antonio visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jungman and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Jungman and little daughter here Sunday.

Aviation Cadet Harley J. Haegen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Haegen of Rio Medina. He enlisted in the United States Army Air Corps and was called to service April 8, 1942. He was sent to Santa Ana, California, for pre-flight training. On June 23rd he was transferred to Seaside Field, Visalia, California, for primary training. When he had completed his studies there he moved to Merced, California, where he received his basic training. Late in October he was transferred to Luke Field, Phoenix, Arizona, for his advanced training. January 4, 1943, will be a big day in Harley's life, for on that day he will receive his "Silver Wings" in graduation exercises at Luke Field.

Coast Guardsman Bernard Jungman arrived home Thursday evening for a ten-day leave. Bernie is visiting his wife and baby daughter and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jungman. He entered the service in July and after several weeks training in New Orleans, Louisiana, went to machinists' school in Massachusetts. He finished the course recently and now holds the rank of Petty Officer, 2nd class. After his visit here he will report at New Orleans for assignment and will then take up the duties of Machinist's mate, 2nd class.

Joe Marx is the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Christilles from Medina Lake to enter the service of the United States. He joined Uncle Sam's Air Forces as Cadet at the San Antonio Cadet Center. Sergeant Ralph Marx is stationed at Cochran Field, Georgia. Private Robert Marx is in Officers Candidate School, Kessler Field, Mississippi. Mrs. Christilles is duly proud of her three sons and says, "They're all in there hoping to do their part to get this war finished."

Alfred Weiblen, another of Uncle Sam's sailors, enjoyed several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Weiblen at Castroville last week. Alfred is stationed at Corpus Christi, Texas. On the last day of his leave his old buddy, Clement Tondre, arrived home. Alfred and Clemmy left Castroville for the Navy together five years ago but hadn't been seeing much of each other during recent years. It was undoubtedly a joyous reunion.

Private Spettel A. Bendele is in Camp Wallace, Texas. Spettel's entrance into the service placed his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bendele of Rio Medina among those parents with three sons, in the armed service of Uncle Sam.

Private Alton Stein is certainly getting his share of travel. He's been in Washington just long enough to know he doesn't like the snow there and is now on his way to Rapid City, South Dakota.

Pvt. Lloyd Schuchart pleasantly surprised his wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Schuchart of Rio Medina, when he arrived from Fort Knox, Kentucky, on a ten-day furlough recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Salzman of LaCoste had word last week from their son, Private Marvin Salzman, who was recently inducted into the United States Army. Marvin is in Camp Howze, Texas. He writes that the camp is near Gainesville, Texas, in the Red River valley, and about 75 miles north of Dallas.

P. F. C. Max A. Bush has notified his father, Lee Bush of LaCoste, that he has been transferred to Van Buren, Arkansas. He had been stationed in Camp Claiborne, Louisiana.

Mrs. John H. Grisham has returned to her home in Paris, Texas, after visiting her mother and family, Mrs. Elizabeth Mechler and children, here for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hutzler and little son, Gary, from Dunlay spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Mangold and family here.

Augusta Shirley Mechler, infant daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth J. Mechler, was baptized in St. Mary's Catholic Church in LaCoste Sunday afternoon, December 13. Sponsors were Mrs. Gus Mechler of Rio Medina and Fritz Mechler of LaCoste.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Jungman and sons, Justie and James, from the Sauz Community and Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Tschirhart from the Essar Ranch, near San Antonio, visited their mother, Mrs. Paulina Tschirhart, who is very ill with an infection on her left hand.

The twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Biediger of Castroville were baptized in St. Louis Catholic Church Sunday afternoon, December 13.

THE OLD GRAY MARE IS WHAT SHE USED TO BE

• On many an important job throughout our Companies' properties, the purr of the gasoline motor has been replaced by the sound of horses' hoofs, as old Dobbin goes back to work for us, helping deliver the Gas.

Horse transportation isn't fast. Often it means inconvenience and hardship. But saving precious tires is a patriotic duty, as well as a necessity.

Our No. 1 job—like that of all citizens—is helping to win the war. For us, that means keeping a constant flow of Natural Gas going to war industries and military establishments.

Today, because of greatly increased demands for Natural Gas and because the building of pipe lines must be kept to the minimum to conserve steel, all of us can help in our country's war effort by careful use of this precious fuel. The Gas you save will help build more armaments for Victory.

HONDO FIELD BASKETEERS BEATEN BY DUNCAN 39-19

Playing against a seasoned team the Hondo AAF Navigation School basketball team bowed to the Duncan Field quintet, 36 to 19, in a tilt at Duncan Monday night.

It was the first battle for the Hondo five, playing against a team which was beaten only 8 points by Texas A. and M.

The next game for Hondo is against the Brooks Field squad at Brooks Field on Dec. 30.

CONCERT FEATURES POST CHORUS

A highlight of the weekly concert of the 324th AAF band at the Hondo Army Air Field post theatre Sunday was the initial performance of the enlisted men's chorus.

Under the direction of Pvt. Charles R. Moon, the group presented two selections, "The Army Air Corps Song" and a special arrangement of "Deep Purple." The chorus organization was perfected and rehearsals started only a week before this first public appearance.

In addition to performing on other occasions, the chorus will be a regular feature of the Sunday afternoon band programs.

A solo headliner on the program was Cpl. Leon Goldstein, 841st Navigation Training Squadron, violinist who formerly was with the Stokowski All-American Youth orchestra.

The relatively large crowd present joined in group singing, another new regular program feature, led by Sgt. Gene Quinn, 840th.

Arrangements for the programs are in charge of Capt. C. A. Baril, special service officer, and Mr. Harold Mueller, band leader.

Members of the chorus include Pfc. John Glasper, accompanist, Cpl. Ted J. Miller, and Pfc. Hugh E. Bader, Paul E. Chase, William E. Dishner, Alois A. Drenzek, Charles W. Emerson, Joseph M. Griffin, Clarence Hagler, Robert J. Kelly, Francis J. Kluz, Erwin H. Ledebuhr, Lance D. Listiak, Robert P. McCoy, O. Arthur Moers, Elmo J. Navarolo, Aubrey W. Richey, Norman M. Steinhauser, Arthur F. Smith, Sylvester P. Ulsrud, Leland A. Valaske laundry and dry cleaning plant opened Monday, but wet wash and other laundry service will not be available until early in January.

Expanded facilities enable the plant to handle the cleaning and pressing service for the entire cadet and training squadron personnel.

HERBECK BAND AND ALL-GIRL REVUE COMING TO AIR FIELD

A streamlined evening of music, song and laughter is headed for Hondo Army Air Field in the form of Ray Herbeck's orchestra and all-girl revue, scheduled to play at the post theatre Tuesday night, Dec. 29.

Capt. C. A. Baril, special services officer in charge of arrangements for the swingfest and revue brought here by USO-Camp Shows, Inc., said two performances were planned, one for enlisted men and the other for officers and cadets.

The musical revue will feature Herbeck's nationally known "Music With Romance"—a style of music appealing to exponents of both sweet and swing.

A headliner with the show is Catherine Westfield, puppeteer whose troupe of six almost life-size dolls emulate the mannerisms and distinctive characteristics of celebrities. Key Taylor is the featured tap-dance artist.

Lynn Russell and Marion Farrar are a feminine team producing satirical comedy songs to round out the evening's entertainment. Yvonne, a pretty blonde with a pleasing voice, and Hal Munbar, baritone, will provide the vocal corps with Herbeck's band.

ENLARGEMENT OF HONDO U. S. O. CENTER PLANNED

Plans are taking shape for the enlargement of the USO center in Hondo to afford far greater recreational facilities and pleasures for men of Hondo Army Air Field.

Supervisors of the center said a 75-foot hall, on the second floor of the building in which the center now has its temporary quarters, has been rented for additional space for the center.

Many new games and other recreational features will be made available.

able, and a library will be established.

At present the center is operating on a temporary basis. Through the efficiency of the hostess staff and supervisors, the limited facilities have been serving the purpose remarkably well for Hondo men.

The center has been decorated for the season and has a Christmas tree. Hostesses have been a great help to soldiers the last week in wrapping Christmas packages. Temporary clothing and package checking facilities have been overtaxed, but when the center is expanded they will be adequate to handle the Air Forces men's needs.
